BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY HERE TONIGHT

avis and Knight And T. R.'s Sister In City For Rally

ed Speakers Expected to Attract Mammoth Crowd to Rialto Theatre—Arrangements Made for Overflow---Boys' Band to Play

The biggest Republican rally of the present campaign is scheduled to be held here this evening. The rally session will be held at the Rialto theatre starting eight o'clock. Arrangements have been made for a possible overflow session in the city park.

An especially good speaking program has been arranged. Mrs. Corrine Roosevelt Robinson, sister of the late Theodore Roosevelt, will be the principal speaker and is expected to attract a large number of women voters to the city.

James L. Davis, former mayor of Cleveland and Republican candidate for governor and C. L. Knight, of Akron, Republican candidate for congress from this district.

Much interest is taken in the address to be delivered by Mrs. Robinson. The Elyria address will be the first to be made by her in Ohio. She is a noted writer and an authoress of national reputation.

The Elyria Boys' Band will furnish the music. It is possible that the Republican Male Quartet will render music.

L. L. Cranford of this city will preside at the meeting.

Treated Her Rough

Celia Bohovick, of Lorain, in her testimony before Judge Redington today, stated that her husband refused to take a bath and got angry and abused her when she requested him to do so. She also said that he swore at her as they were leaving the church after being married because her friends showered the couple with rice.

She was given a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

SENATOR CRANE IS VICTIM OF SLEEP MALADY

Died This Morning After Illness Contracted At Calvin Coolidge Nomination Exercises

DALTON, MASS., Oct. 2.—W. Murray Crane, former United States senator and for years a power in the republican party, died early today at Sugar Hill, the family home.

The end came quietly after four days of heavy sleep, almost of unconsciousness. The sleeping sickness had set in after an illness of several months and it was this which immediately preceded death, the actual cause of which was said by his physicians to be encephalitis or inflammation of the brain. At his bedside with the knowledge that he was expiring, were his wife, his son, W. Murray Crane, Jr. and two sisters.

National politics, in which Senator Crane had been an active figure for years, were closely connected with the illness which was a precursor of the end. The senator who had been National committeeman of the republican party in Massachusetts for years, announced his retirement before the national convention but went to Chicago to make a fight for republican endorsement of the league of nations.

His health was not good, but those associated with him said today that he decided to make what would probably be his last fight in politics for the issue that lay close to his heart. He retired from Chicago further impaired in health. He emerged from semi-retirement next to attend the exercises at Northampton, July 27, the formal notification to Governor Coolidge, his long time friend, of nomination for the vice presidency. His health was not equal to the double exactions of a torrid sun and the fatigue caused by long standing and he suffered a collapse, recovering, however, sufficiently to be removed to his home.

The senator rallied for a time

No Attempt Made To Bribe Players In Coming Series

District Attorney, After Investigation, Clears Dodgers—Zimmerman, Chase and Magee Cases to Come Up Tuesday—McGraw and Others to Testify

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—District Attorney Lewis of Kings county today issued a statement in which he declared investigation by his office had failed to disclose any plan to "fix" the 1920 world's series.

"My investigations have not disclosed a single suspicion that there has been any attempt to 'fix' the coming series," said Mr. Lewis in his statement exonerating all members of the Brooklyn nationals, a competitor in the series.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—The Cook county grand jury, which has been conducting the investigation into the alleged "fixing" of the 1919 world's series, today was to be made a special body to continue its search of baseball history for evidence of crookedness. The regular sessions of the grand jury were completed yesterday.

There will be no session of the jury today other than a perfunctory one to dispose of the formalities making it a special body. Testimony will be resumed Monday, however, and on Tuesday, John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; Fred Toney, Giant pitcher, and Benny Kauff, former outfielder of the New York club, will take the stand to conclude evidence relating to Heinie Zimmerman, Hal Chase and Lee Magee, National players, who are alleged to have conspired to throw the ball games during the 1919 season.

Zimmerman Suspected

Kauff and Toney, it is understood, will testify that Zimmerman offered them $500 and $200 respectively to throw a game. They refused.

The grand jury will delve into reports of dishonesty in the National pastime stretching back through more than a decade, according to States Attorney Maclay Hoyne.

In connection with it, was reported that Charles Dooin, former manager of the Philadiphia National league team would be subpoenaed. Dooin, in Atlantic City.

HARDING ASKS UNIFIED LIFE FOR AMERICA

Advocates Agricultural and Industrial Policy to Aid Common Good in Nation

WEST JEFFERSON, O., Oct. 2.—Advocating agriculture and industrial policy to coordinate American resources for the common good, Senator Harding declared in a speech at a republican rally near here today that "one for all and all for one" must be the motto of individual effort if the nation is to achieve its fully potentialities.

"I want to see American life so knit together," he said, "and every American appreciative of the fact that the welfare of his fellow is his own welfare, that we will go forward to weave a great and humane pattern of united Americanism."

Making a particular appeal for betterment of the condition of the farmer, the nominee asserted that agricultural production really was of greater interest to those who live in cities than to those farmers themselves. As a

WARM DEBATE IN LORAIN CASE

Attorneys for A. A. King, deposed chief of police of Lorain and of Mayor Grall, argued the demurrer filed by King's attorneys to show cause why Mayor Grall should not at once reinstate King to office, before Judge Redington this morning.

The attorneys for King argue that the civil service commission of Lorain by delaying the investigation of the charges against King for more than thirty days have lost jurisdiction of the case and that the commission as now constituted is not a legal body.

On the other hand attorneys for Grall hold that the commission has a right to delay the case as long as they desire, and that Judge Redington has no jurisdiction on a demurrer.

The case was hotly debated by attorneys on both sides, and it was finally decided that both sides should submit briefs to Judge Redington, by next Wednesday.

First Arrest Made Here by Sheriff In Whiskey Theft Case

Max Himmel, Driver of Truck, Held as Suspect — Prohibition Agent's Men Here As Investigators--Liquor Released

One arrest has been made on account of the theft of $50,000 worth of whiskey by hold-up men near the street car barns here last Tuesday night. Sheriff Backus placed Max Himmel, one of the drivers of the whisky trucks, under arrest, on account of certain statements made by him that looked as if he had knowledge of, and was a party to the hold up. The other drivers are free as yet, as the officers have nothing on them.

Messrs. Rodgers and Fowler, representing Fred Counts, of Cleveland, prohibition officer for this district, were in the city yesterday investigating the shipment of whiskey. Telegrams from the Federal agent at New York City, and from the warehouse at Lynchberg, Ohio, state that the shipment of the liquor was regular, and it is likely that M. F. Silver, of New York, the owner, will be allowed to take the liquor now stored in the basement of the county jail, and proceed with it to its destination in New York.

This will be done, officials say unless Federal officers demand it, in which case it will be turned over to them.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 2.—Columbus and many other Ohio towns and cities will go back on winter time schedule tonight after having "saved an hour of daylight" all summer by having their clocks advanced one hour.

Local jewelers offer a bit of free advice in the proper way of moving the hands of clocks and watches. The proper way, they say, is to move the clock around 11 hours. They say that moving the hands of a clock backwards may destroy the utility of the time piece.

SENATOR HARDING ADDRESSES MOTHERS FROM ENTIRE NATION

Friday was an epoch in the history of Marion if not in the United States for there was held on that day which Senator Warren G Harding called 'Social Justice Day' a demonstration the like of which that town if not the entire country had never witnessed.

Women the great majority of whom were mothers, from every state in the union, made a pilgriming in great delegations from the age to the Harding home marchtrains to the 'Front Porch' of the Harding home proclaiming by their presece and enthusiasm their faith and loyalty, not only in the Republican party but in its candidate for president of the United States.

Assisting Senator and Mrs Harding, in greeting the thousands of guests were Mrs Alice Longworth Mrs Corrine Roosevelt Robinson, Mrs Leonard Wood Mrs Sproul, Mrs Harriet Taylor Upton, Mrs Raymond Robins and Miss Rose Moriarty the latter a former Elyria girl, who is now the leader of the organized forces of women with headuarters at Columbus.

Mrs W C Christy of Oberlin and Mrs J. M Clark of this city were among the delegates from Ohio who took part in the social service day celebration officially representing Lorain county.

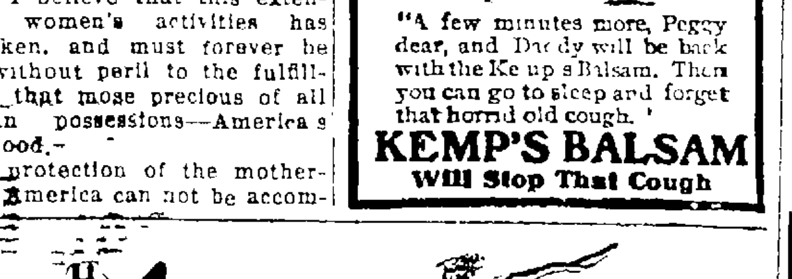

In his address to the women Senator Harding talked on 'America safe for Democracy not a mere sentiment, the social welfare of the country the department of public welfare, the department of public welfare, the department of public health, the cementing of party discord and to the mothers especially he said in part

You represent the achievements of the women of America. You represent indeed an extension of woman's field of endeavor which is a benefaction to the world. I believe that this extension of women's activities has been taken, and must forever be taken without peril to the fulfillment of that mose precious of all American possessions—America's motherhood.

'The protection of the motherhood of America can not be accomplished until the state and the nation have enacted and by their example have enforced customs which protect womanhood itself. I know full well that there are women who insist that women shall be treated upon the same basis that men are treated. They would have a right to take this position in their own behalf but I insist that all true Americans must insist that no woman speaks for herself alone. She is the possessor of our our future and though she becomes engaged in the tasks and services of civilization we must preserve to her the right of wholesome maternity.

We no longer are speaking of a small group. Twelve million women in the United States, forty percent of them between fifteen and twenty years of age are engaged in paid occupations or professions. Such an army of potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors. For such an army there must be an increasing enlightenment in industry and business which will tend to break down distinctions of sex in matters of remuneration and establish equal pay for equal work. The needs of such an army engaging in the tasks of America probably can not be understood by men alone. In the administration of federal and state laws and in the educational services which will assist industry and the public and the women themselves to understand the needs of women we will require the services of the most capable women we can get upon federal and state boards of employment, labor adjustment and indeed wherever the welfare of maternity and the welfare of American childhood directly or remotely, are involved.

RURAL MUSICAL COMEDY COMES HERE MONDAY

Now that Abe Martin Kin Hubbard's famous and genial newspaper cartoon character is cavorting on the stage in a musical comedy called "Abe Martin' produced by Boyle Woolfolk and which comes to the Rialto Theatre next Monday night Oct 4 it is particularly apropo that theatergoers become acquainted with Abe's biography as set forth by Mr Hubbard who says

"Abe Martin was born at Roundhead, Hardin county Ohio some time between the first and second Seminole wars He got his early education in a general store and played a yellow clarinet in a band on Johnson's Island, Lake Erie during the Rebellion of which we have all heard so much After his outing was broken up he went to Brown County Indiana to reside with his wife's folks Mr Martin votes the Democratic ticket for nothing and is a student of the film and drama He eats sardines between the acts and boasts of having seen The Hidden Hand twenty one times and Julia Marlowe in Pinafore once He says that politics is just one five cent cigar after another and that the Union was preserved so ball players could practice in the South

Mr Woolfolk's production of Abe Martin is the only distinctly rural musical comedy ever staged It is considerably more pretentious than the average cartoon musical show in point of book music scenery costuming and principals The book which is the joint work of John P Mulgrew and G G Mercer contains a comical story replete with Abe Martin humor and Felix Rice has provided a melodious score that contains a number of tuneful song hits Seats now selling

This picture, from the time that the script was turned over to the director at the studio until it was placed in the leading theatres of the country as a finished production, has been a constant source of joy To begin with, three members of the cast were led to the altar The director became the happy and proud father of twins, and Mary Anderson, the dainty star of Bubbles has been placed in the front rank of movie stars through the wonderful success which this film has enjoyed.

Even the advertising man turned poet in order to sing of the praises of Bubbles Here is one of his ebullitions while under the genial spell of this picture

"If your heart is blue,
Put on a smile
And go see Bubbles!"

CHICAGO WHITE SOX IS EXPIRING FAST

ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 2—The Chicago White Sox had only a fighting chance for the American league pennant today as they went into the second game of the series with St. Louis [illegible] round, in the 1920 schedule.

Lisbon Professionals Will Tackle Elyria Aggregation

Many Members of Last Year's Cleveland Indian Professional Football Team to Be Seen In Elyria Uniform---Visitors Have Lost But Two Games in Five Years

The professional bootball season, the first since 1913, will be open in Elyria at Riverview Park tomorrow afternoon when the Elyria Professionals meet the crack Lisbon Professionals.

The Lisbon team is one of the best in Ohio and has lost but two games in five years.

Elyria will be represented by the best team since the state champions of seven years ago.

In addition to an array of crack local stars, many of whom have been playing stellar football for years, will be several members of last year's Cleveland Indian Professional Football team.

It will be hard to ascertain just what stars will be in Elyria uniform tomorrow. At least four Ohio stars of an all-Ohio or all-American calibre will be seen in action. The team will be selected at the practice session to be held at Riverview Park at ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

The stellar attraction tomorrow afternoon starts at 2:30 o'clock and is expected to attract a record attendance.

GEORGE SISLER AND HORNSBY LEAD LEAGUES

CHICAGO, Oct. 2—With the close of the major league season tomorrow, George Sisler, star first baseman of the St. Louis Americans, and Roger Hornsby of the St. Louis Nationals, sem to be certain of the 1920 batting championship in their respective leagues. Ruth closed the season with a record of [illegible] home runs.

Sisler, according to averages compiled today is safely in front in the American league race with an average of 405, with Tris Speaker, Cleveland, second, with 387. Jackson, the suspended Chicago [illegible], is third, with 382, and Ruth, the home run monarch, fourth [illegible] 375. The averages include games of Wednesday.

In the National league Nicholson of Pittsburg is second to Hornsby, with an average of 359. Hornsby's average was 370. Young of New York pulled up in third place with [illegible], and Roush of Cincinnati, fourth, with 339.

LEONARD-BRITTON BOUT MAY BE HELD TONIGHT

CLEVELAND, Oct. 2—Benny Leonard lightweight champion, and Jack Britton, holder of the welterweight title will make another attempt to get together for their scheduled ten round bout at American league park here tonight.

The bout, originally set for last Thursday night, was twice postponed because of the cold rainy weather.

Both champions are keeping in condition working out at gymnasiums.

NORWALK HIGH TEAM APPEARS VERY WEAK

NORWALK, Oct. 2—If the high school football season is a failure this year, the slacker spirit shown by a group of husky young men doubtless will be one of the causes. The register kept by the coach shows that a total of 26 men have reported for practice this fall. As a rule however, only about 15 have been showing up for daily practice.

This would indicate that the football spirit at Norwalk high is at about the lowest ebb in 10 years or more. In Coach Meredith, Norwalk has one of the finest gridiron instructors in the state. But no matter how able a coach may be he can not build up a team without players.

If Norwalk is to have any kind of a team at all this fall, it will be necessary for Meredith to have enough men on the field each night for at least two full teams.

GRAFTON TEAM PLAYS AT LORAIN SUNDAY

LORAIN, Oct. 2—The Urban A. C. football team will play the strong Grafton Tigers here on the city field Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

According to dope the Grafton team is in for a nifty lacing. The Urbans defeated the Mercury club 9-0 a week ago and the Mercury club handed the Grafton team a 29-0 lacing Sunday.

But the Grafton team is a fighting bunch of players and is sure to give the opponents a stiff run for the honors.

The Urbans are at the present time the leaders of amateur football teams of the city having won every one of the three games played.

The Urbans are taking no chances on the Grafton team being easy and will hold three practices in preparation for the game. They will practice tonight and Friday night and Sunday morning. All players are requested to attend all three practices.

Columbia-Rat Game Postponed

The scheduled game between the Court House Rats and the Columbia club to play off the protested game to decide the championship of the first half of the Twilight league schedule and which was ordered played over again has been postponed, and will not be played this afternoon. The grounds at Riverside park are too wet for the game and will be used this afternoon for the football game between Elyria High and Cleveland East Tech. The ball game will probably be played next Saturday afternoon.

Football Saturday was a fair test of the relative strength of elevens. In the first place it was too early in the season for the formidable schools like Fremont and Fostoria to clash. It is safe to assume that neither eleven has reached anything like top speed. Then [illegible] the weather was not of the football kind. But the game was sufficient to show that any team that hits Fremont this year will have a job on its hands.

Elyria high made a good showing against Akron South, at Akron. Akron won 1[illegible] to 0, but the torrid weather had as much to do with the result as anything else. Elyria had but few substitutes on hand, while Akron played two full teams.

Vernon Braddon, star end of the Lorain high eleven of last fall is with Elyria high this year. Braddon's folks moved to Elyria in the last year.

Baseball isn't a business or a pastime with Tris Speaker. It's a passion. He lives on it. That's why he almost copped the batting title while carrying the cares of the manager of a pennant contender. Tris was born in Hubbard, Tex., April 4, 1888. Played ball while at Fort Worth Polytech. Was with Huston when Red Sox paid $400 for him. Played with Little Rock in 1908. Then joined Red Sox. Became regular center fielder in 1909. Purchased by Indians April 12, 1916, for $55,000 and two players. He succeeded Fohl as manager July 19, 1919.

FACTS TO GIVE CALAMITY HOWLER FOOD FOR THOUGHT

It is very peculiar, this human nature of ours because 90 per cent of the men and women are very quick to see the clouds of trouble and to miss the bright sunshine of pleasure, states an article from the Ford factor received by J. H. Simpson, local Ford distributor. Let a rumor emanate from an insane asylum that there is going to be a failure of the crops, and the multitudes commence to mourn right away Seems as if people like to be in trouble

And so it is that there has spread over this country an almost universal belief that we had to have a financial panic, we must have a commercial depression we were due for a peroid of hard times Hades was to pay and no pitch hot Rumor upon rumor of a shortage in crops, shortage in mechanical production, shortage in labor, in fact, it seemed as if the whole world was going to be a dog gone short that it was liable to drop into a hole and disappear The prophets of cheerfulness were like the proverbial hen's teeth — few and far between

But let us just take America Never in our history has there been so much money, real honest-to-goodness cash in the United States as there is today This country has been growing in wealth by leaps and bounds because we have the best educated people in the world, the most moral people the most humane people people with more initiative than obtains among any other peoples on Earth Then we have a country whose unlimited natural resources represent wealth untold. We were coming to the mastership of the wealth of the world before the war For instance in 1913 this country produced 14,000 000 000 more than it consumed Then the war came on and our production was hurried until in 1917 we produced $18 000 000 000 more than we consumed

Then in 1919 our production was the largest in the history of the country We produced more goods than we did in 1917 and we had an eager market for everything we produced and all we sold brought the money to America — it's here

Now with this vast accumulation of money how can we have a financial panic how can we have a commercial depression how can we have hard times? Impossible! There was naturally a reconstruction period which must follow after a world conflict After our own Civil war of 1861-65 we were ten years passing through that was called the reconstruction period, during which our money went down to fifty cents on the dollar

We are going through the present reconstruction period inside of three years and our money is at a premium the world over

Talk about hard times, talk about depression—nonsense!

Let us tell you that there is one hundred years of intense prosperity right at the doors of the people of the United States We won't have men and women enough to manufacture all that is necessary to meet the demand We are producing more today than ever before in practically every line unless it be shipbuilding and that will come back We have millions of acres untilled We have billions of gold silver copper and lead to be unearthed Oil is being found in every state in the Union All the resources of the country are coming to the surface and we are going to be the busiest people that humanity has ever known and likewise the richest Let there be no hesitancy—hang your banners on the outer walls and sound the trumpets of triumph—success is here

The fiscal year of the Ford Motor company ended July 31 1920, and in that year they made 996,660 cars and $8 000 Fordson tractors besides having unfilled orders on file for more than 200 000 cars and many thousand tractors which means an increase over all past production by more than 50 per cent and next year their plans are to make 1 250 000 Ford cars and 250 000 tractors Do you suppose that this company is guessing Not for a minute Other industries are the same Get a hustle on Talk prosperity and act prosperity. keep busy and you can't help but enjoy prosperity Spend you money—it is no good idle Do your share and make the next century a golden era in which all humanity will be lifted up to a higher plane of productivity comfort, happiness

NEW AUTO LOCK TO SELL HERE

The Imperial Top & Tire Co., have added to their list of accessories the "Bulldog" alarm auto lock which it is said is approved by the Underwriters' Laboratories making a 15 per cent reduction in theft insurance possible The manufacturers state they pay a $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of any one stealing a car with one of the locks properly installed and locked The lock which is either a Corbin or Yale sets on the steering column and is readily installed making it impossible to take the car as a chrome steel plunger penetrates the steering post

SOME CAR PRICES TO REMAIN SAME

Word from the different automobile factories regarding the price question of motor cars reached local dealers this week

The Lorain County Motors Co., local distributors of the Stephens Salient Six and Reo cars and trucks were informed by the Stephens factory that they did not contemplate a price lowering as their present prices were based on material and labor rates existing and the factory did not conceive it their duty to absorb losses that would be incident to a reduction as their profit was nominal and permitted of no reductions The Stephens people state that prices should come down in a more ordinary manner beginning with materials and labor, but that the latter will not be cheaper until the cost of living declines

The Buick company in a wire to the Chronicle-Telegram stated that dealers were guaranteed against any factory reduction in list price on all 1921 models on hand or in transit up to July 1, 1921 The Elyria Buick company sells the Buick in this territory and the price information was sent from the factory by E T. Strong.

The Haynes automobile factory sent the following to the Central Garage, Elyria distributors: "On account of costs of recent improvements in Haynes car, present high cost of labor and materials, we see no possibility of reduction in price of Haynes automobiles this year We will protect our dealers against a reduction of price for period of ninety days from date thus enabling them to protect purchasers" The Haynes people state that "pre war automobiles may be sold at pre war prices, but the Haynes today is not a pre-war car. This bulletin was dated on September 27th

"STORAGE BATTERY" A MISNOMER

"According to the experts, a storage battery doesn't store electricity at all," says F S Aust, Willard Service Station Dealer, "but the term describes the piece of automobile equipment well enough so that everybody knows what you mean"

"What really happens inside the battery is a chemical change involving the lead, lead compounds and the acid of the solution This chemical change is forced along by the charging generator As soon as the battery is called on to light the lights, spin the starter or do any other work, the chemical energy is released and produces the required electricity"

"Though the process is quite complicated, the battery is remarkably simple and needs little attention As long as the charge is kept up to above the 1,250 mark on the hydrometer, and the battery solution is kept 3-8 of an inch above the tops of the insulators, the car owner can feel that he is giving proper attention to this vital part of his car".

IMPROVEMENT OF WEST AVENUE IS COMPLETED

After being torn up for over a year, the paving of West avenue was completed yesterday afternoon and the street is now entirely open to the public, much to the satisfaction of the residents of the street as well as the general public It is expected that much of the through traffic that now follows Middle avenue will be diverted to West avenue as there is a bad piece of road near the car barns that can be avoided by taking the new route

Workmen are now engaged in laying the binder on East avenue to be followed by the new asphalt covering It will take about three weeks to complete this work which will open up another street for north and south traffic

CUMMINS-ESCH BILL PROVISION OVERRULED IN UNIQUE CONTEST

LOUISVILLE, Ky, Oct. 2—Overruling the railway adjustment board created by the Esch-Cummins bill, Judge Ernest Clark of the Kentucky court of appeals, has granted an injunction to W. W Gregg, Louisville & Nashville passenger conductors, to prevent his being supplanted on his run by William Pennybacker, freight conductor

The case was appealed by Gregg from the circuit court at Louisville when he was refused a restraining order.

The suit grew out of the fact that Pennybacker asked for Gregg's job under the seniority rule contract of the railroad and the brotherhood of railway conductors and was upheld by railway adjustment board No 1, Washington Pennybacker is a brotherhood member, but as Gregg is not he aked the circuit court at Louisville for the injunction on the ground that the seniority contract did not apply to him The injunction was refused and he appealed to the court of appeals part of the same community of interest, he said, transportation facilities must be stabilized and a rehabilitated railway system supplemented by inland waterway development and by commercial use of motor trucks to carry freight.

United Not Only In Name

"We are beginning to learn," he continued, "that we are not only in name and in desire a united people but that we are so in fact, and I point to the relationship of our cities to our rural population and of both to our American railways as an example of our interwoven prosperity. It is impossible to pull one of the threads of the great fabric without starting the unraveling of the prosperity of all of us"

The senator reiterated his belief that farmers should be given the right of cooperative marketing should be encouraged through the federal farm loan system to own the farms they live on, should be assured stable transportation facilities and a stable labor supply, and should be given protection against unfair competition from abroad He also advocated a better system of rural education and a higher standard of farm social welfare, and declared that profiteering must be squeezed out Discussing in detail the problem of rural education, Mr Harding took occasion to speak a word for the education of adults in current events and asserted that such a movement would constitute "the true bulwark against extreme radicalism

Rural Education

"We must see to it," he said, "that we immediately raise the standards of rural education We have just awakened to the fact that the education of the American child everywhere has fallen below the standard necessary for the protection of our future. We have had to face the fact that our school teachers are underpaid. We have had to face the fact that in physical training and in the teaching of American civil government and American history and the principles of Americanism and Americanization, we have been deplorably delinquent.

"But nowhere, I think, is there more cause for alarm than in the fact that the annual school term of the rural school in the United States only average one hundred and thirty seven days a year We must have no bureaucracy of the federal government in education but we owe it to the children of the nation to place at its disposal the utmost in education facilities

It is my belief that the conception of adult education will develop in America. Education of the adult, which teaches the facts of current life at home and abroad, will be the true bulwark against extreme radicalism and will be the basis of an intelligent, free and tolerant thought said that in 1908 a man handed him a package containing $8,000, and remarked that there was $40,000 more in a bank if Doolin would "throw" the next game to New York.

The present investigation, it was said, is hastening a plan which has been under discussion for some time among sporting authorities and others to put the control of the game under a national tribunal composed of men prominent in the country not now connected with baseball, rather than to have it controlled by private interests.

New Plans Endorsed

Four major clubs, the Chicago White Sox, the Chicago Cubs, the New York Giants and the Pittsburg Nationals have endorsed [illegible] plan and it was understood that the Boston Americans and [illegible] al league clubs also approved its adoption.

Already baseball men are conjecturing as to the personnel of the tribunal. Such names as General Pershing, William H Taft, Judge K. M. Landis and Major General Leonard Wood were mentioned, though it was admitted that none of these men had been approached

OBERLIN TEAM CRIPPLED FOR TIFFIN GAME

OBERLIN, Oct. 2 —Crippled by the loss of two star backfield men for the game, Oberlin will go into its Ohio conference season this afternoon here against Heidleberg facing a hard struggle.

Leon Taylor, star halfback, developed a case of tonsilitis two days ago, but until yesterday it was believed he could play. He took a turn for the worse yesterday however, and has not the ghost of a chance to perform against the Tiffin eleven.

Al Wheeler, an Oberlin boy and regular quarterback, will not start the game. He was found breaking training rules this week with Loy, sub end, and coach Metcalf said yesterday that Mayer will start at quarterback.

With Wheeler and Taylor out of the game, Oberlin will have a hard time with Heidelberg, and the game, which was before considered a sure victory for the varsity, is now very much in doubt.

d?anreeoi-qb nvwctheSrS ET ETI

Winters, a sophomore, will take Taylor's half, making the backfield consist of Mayer, quarter, McPhoe and Winters, halves, and Parkhill, full. In Wheeler's absence, Parkhill will probably do the punting.

President Henry C. King will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the auditorium of the Men's building. He will speak on "Friendship" Ben grant will sing for the musical number.

TO OBSERVE CAMPUS NIGHT NEXT TUESDAY

OBERLIN, Oct. 2.—"Campus Night," a new college function will be initiated, Tuesday, October 5th, when the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will unite in entertaining all students of all departments at a picnic supper and sing.

Supper, a bonfire, and songs will furnish the evening's entertainment. The affair will be held in the open air, between Peter's hall and Warner hall at 5 p. m.

OBERLIN, Oct 2.—One hundred and thirty thousand miles walked on Oberlin streets during 31 years of continuous service as a mail carrier is the record of E. P. Chapman, 63, who has route No. 3 in the north part of town.

This is the Lorain county record for mail service. October 1, 1889, free delivery was begun in Oberlin, Mr. Chapman being the first "regular" employed

Mr Chapman has also been a civil service examiner for 27 years, ever since Oberlin was made an examination office.

"People are nearly always glad to get mail, and it is pleasant to serve them," he said in telling of his vocation.

OBERLIN, Oct. 2.—Oberlin high school's football team journeys to Wellington this afternoon to meet the Wellington high eleven, which held Lorain to a single touchdown two weeks ago.

Coach M. A Houghton expects to start Probert and Fitzgerald at ends; Dyer and May, tackles; Worcester and Williams, guards; Capt. Krouger, center, Farrar, quarter; Richardson and Rudeloff, halfbacks, and Morris, fullback.

The game will show whether Oberlin has any chance for the title in the Little Big Six, although it will not count in the standings. Oberlin was expected to win the contest although Wellington's record so far has been good.

JAPANESE WOULD RUN CHINESE RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Oct 2 — Evidence of a Japanese desire for complete domination of the Chinese eastern railway now administered by an inter allied commission was reported to the Chinese government in a recent memorandum by a commission of inquiry to Manchuria and Siberia A copy received today in diplomatic circles is dated July 28, 1920 and shows it was prepared by a commission of three counsellors to Chinese government consisting of an American French and British representatives

The commission declared that from evidence collected as to bandit raids in the vicinity of the railroad, which spans the Chinese province of Manchuria, it was plain that certain bands were armed with Japanese guns"
